

Visual Art Task Force Minutes

June 1, 2007 8:30 am Showcase

Minutes from Colette Pitcher, team leader

In attendance: Katherine Luepschen, Linda McSwain, Francis Denning, Colette Pitcher

E-mail is bouncing from Rhonda, Katy, Kim at the City and Mark F at UNC. Do these places have a spam blocker?

We started with introductions and a summary of past discussions.

Linda reported on the tax increment financing district and requirements to use funds. RFP progress on Artists Village was discussed. RFP has not been released yet.

Andrew Svedlow is away on travels this summer and will be available in August

The Art Center was discussed. Katy gave us ideas and past experiences in LaFayette/Louisville.

Discussion about a tight City budget and upcoming cuts will probably negate new financial support for new art programs. Citizens must initiate any and fund new programs. How?

Discussion about a hosting a networking opportunities for artists. What has been done? Arts Alive dinner, Colorado Arts and Humanities conferences at the civic center. What else could we do?

Francis asked for more communication regarding public art opportunities. Discussion on marketing and communications.

Tonight is First Friday. Tointon Gallery has an opening 5-7 featuring Don Sayers and Pam Simich.

Colette Pitcher has her bronze that will be installed in Evergreen tonight on display at Showcase today.

There will be no meeting July 6 due to vacation schedules.
Next meeting: August 3, 2007 First Friday 8:30 am
